

Mrs Madden's Class News

Thursday 19th October 2023

This Week...

It was great to catch up with so many of you on our parent consultations, thank you for taking the time to speak to me. I'm sure you're all as proud of the children as we are.

Secret Storyteller –

To promote the importance of reading, we would like to invite parents (or a family member) into school to read a story or two to the class. The idea is that the secret storyteller will sneak into school without letting the child they are linked know! If you think you would like to become a 'secret storyteller' please get in contact.

Next Week... is half term!

Please enjoy the break from school whatever you may be up to. Feel free to add photos to Tapestry, please be mindful that I won't be checking Tapestry until we return to school.

Huge thanks for your continued support, it really does make a difference to your child's learning.

Have a wonderful half term.

Mrs Madden 😊
