

BYLEY PRIMARY SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

Friday 4th May

Head teacher's message:

Today the children looked their best for our class photos. I am sure many of you will be placing orders shortly.

Children in Years 1 and 2 entertained us with their Celebration Assembly this week and showed us how knowledgeable they have become 'so far' this year. Thanks to Mrs King, Miss Doodey and Mrs Sobutta for their work with the children.

Next week it will be our Reception parents who are invited to come along at 2:40 on Wednesday afternoon and share some of the things children have been busy learning with Mrs Madden and her team.

We are also expecting a visit from our PCSO next week (take care when parking). He is hoping to work with children from Reception to Year 2 with reminders of 'Stranger Danger'.

Our PTA met at school on Thursday – please watch their spot for further announcements, especially in the run up to the Summer Fayre and contact us if you can offer your support

Bags-2-School will be here on Friday morning to collect your donations of unwanted clothes. This fundraiser always does well for our PTA and I thank you in advance for your support.
