Friday 11th May

Head teacher's message:

We have enjoyed another busy week at school where learning and teaching has covered many skills and subjects.

The highlight of the week for parents of our Reception children will have undoubtedly have been their assembly on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs Madden and her team were rightly proud of the children's efforts and of their learning journey so far.

Our Year 2's have grappled with their statutory tests this week and now 'pass the baton' to Year 6, whose turn comes next week. We will of course share their outcomes with parents (and governors) at the end of this summer term. Please ensure that all children, in Year 6 especially, arrive at school in good time next week.

On Thursday we plan to have our picnic lunch to celebrate the forthcoming royal wedding; children are invited to wear non-uniform red, white and blue on the day. Year 6 should arrive wearing school uniform and will be able to change after their test.

Whilst on the subject of lunch, please can I remind you that we are a 'Healthy School' and discourage children from bringing packs of sweets as part of their lunch. Also, their water bottles should not contain cordials or other drinks.

Many of you will have seen the dilapidated state of the EYFS outdoor play house, if you know of someone who no longer needs theirs and might like to donate it, please get in touch.
