

Fun with Jay

A 'Let's Read Together!' Book

Kit and Sam helped Jay to visit them. He asked if he could play for the day.

It was the end of the holiday.
They took him to the classroom
the next day.

They lost him on the display. He should stay hidden!

At midday, they went for dinner.
They had to tell Jay there were no toads.

After dinner it was Kit and Sam's art lesson. Jay got stuck with the crayons.

He had so much fun but he could not stay. Jay said “I must go back to my planet.”
