

The Kite

A 'Let's Read Together!' Book

When we were on our way to visit our grandparents, we found a kite hanging in a tree. Sam climbed up to get it but she was shocked by a wren. She fell out of the tree and hurt her wrist.

I bravely got the kite out of the tree. We made it into a sling for Sam's arm. Then, we pushed our bikes all the way to Grandma Dadi and Grandpa Dada's house because Sam could not ride any more.

Q1: Why did Sam fall out of the tree?

Q2: What is the adverb in the sentence, 'Kit bravely got the kite out of the tree'?

My dad says I can never find my kites so I wrote an address on this one. Hopefully, it won't go too far away! If you find it, please can I have it back? Please send it to my mum at her shop:

Zuzanna Wright

The Wristwatch Retailer

26B Wrigley Road,

Wrexham

Thanks

We found the note attached to the kite and felt sad that someone had lost such a beautiful kite!

Grandma Dadi drove Sam to see Doctor Tanaka. The doctor wanted to cut the kite off Sam's arm but Sam would not let her. She wanted to return it to its owner as the note had asked.

Q3: Why might the child have given her mum's work address instead of her home address on the note?

Q4: Why didn't Sam want the doctor to cut her kite-sling off?

When we returned from the doctors, we all walked quickly to the post office to return the kite. We wrapped it tightly in brown paper and wrote the address that we had been given on the note.