

A Trip to Kanpur

A 'Let's Read Together!' Book

Dad got us some tickets to go with Grandma Dadi and Grandpa Dada to visit our family in Kanpur. We were so happy and eager to get on the plane.

We took an auto-rickshaw to our family's house. We were very glad to meet Aditi, Ravi, Ankit and baby Diya. Ankit could not wait to show us some of his home town.

Ankit took us on some buses around Kanpur to see the sights. First, we went to the shops to get Sam some new dresses and bracelets.

Then we went to see a holy place where we saw shrines to some of the gods. When we came out, we ate something spicy called a samosa.

Next, we took one of the buses to a park. We were lucky we did not need our raincoats all day. When we went back home, we played with baby Diya and Grandpa Dada told us stories.

On our last day, we went to see the river and Grandma Dadi took us to the little house where she grew up. We will miss our family but we will send letters and photos to them.
